

City of Dunedin, Florida
Office of the Mayor

Proclamation
in recognition of Remembrance of the Holocaust

Whereas, the Holocaust was the state-sponsored, systematic persecution and annihilation of European Jewry by Nazi Germany and its collaborators between 1933 and 1945; many others were also targeted for destruction or decimation for racial, ethnic, or national reasons; and suffered grievous oppression and death under Nazi tyranny; and

Whereas, the history of the Holocaust offers an opportunity to reflect on the moral responsibilities of individuals, societies, and governments; and

Whereas, we the people of the City of Dunedin should always remember the terrible events of the Holocaust and remain vigilant against hatred, persecution, and tyranny; and

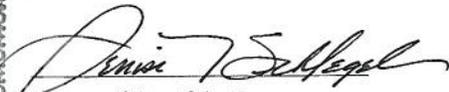

Whereas, we the people of the City of Dunedin should actively rededicate ourselves to the principles of individual freedom in a just society; and

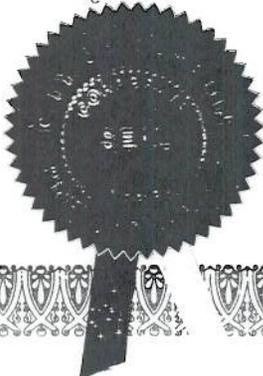

Whereas, the Days of Remembrance have been set aside for the people to remember the victims of the Holocaust as well as to reflect on the need for respect of all peoples; and

Whereas, pursuant to an Act of Congress, the United States Holocaust Memorial Council designates the Days of Remembrance of the Victims of the Holocaust as Sunday, May 1 through Sunday, May 8, 2011, including the Day of Remembrance known as Yom HaShoah, May 1, 2011;

NOW, THEREFORE, I Dave Eggers, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of Dunedin, and on behalf of the entire City Commission, do hereby proclaim the week of Sunday, May 1 through Sunday, May 8, 2011, as Days of Remembrance in memory of the victims of the Holocaust and in honor of the survivors as well as the rescuers and liberators, and further proclaim that we, as citizens of the City of Dunedin should work to promote human dignity and confront hatred whenever and wherever it occurs.

Attest
