

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Holocaust was the state-sponsored, systematic persecution and annihilation of European Jewry by Nazi Germany and its collaborators between 1933 and 1945; and

WHEREAS, Jews were the primary victims—six million were murdered; also Gypsies, Poles, and the disabled were targeted for destruction or decimation for racial, ethnic, or national reasons; and

WHEREAS, millions more, including homosexuals, Jehovah's Witnesses, Soviet prisoners of war, and political dissidents also suffered grievous oppression and death under Nazi tyranny; and

WHEREAS, the history of the Holocaust offers an opportunity to reflect on the moral responsibilities of individuals, societies, and government; and

WHEREAS, it is important for the citizens of Washington State to actively rededicate themselves to the principles of individual freedom in a just society; and

WHEREAS, the Days of Remembrance have been set aside for the citizens of the state of Washington to remember the terrible events of the Holocaust and remain vigilant against hatred, persecution, and tyranny;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Christine O. Gregoire, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby proclaim May 1-8, 2011, as

including May 1, 2011, as

International Day of Remembrance – Yom Hashoah

in Washington State, in memory of the victims of the Holocaust and in honor of the survivors, as well as the rescuers and liberators.

Signed this 17th day of February, 2011

Governor Christine O. Gregoire
