Within the different sections of the Permanent Exhibition, there are display panels that convey information about the events of the Holocaust. Each includes one or more types of media, such as photographs, documents, objects, moving images, and text. The display panel below, entitled Nazi Propaganda, includes all types of media used in the exhibition.