

Questions of Complicity in Nazi Germany and the Jim Crow South

Wednesday, January 31, 2018

7:00 p.m. CT

Bell Hall 282
Tennessee Technological University
10 West 7th Street
Cookeville, TN

CO-ORGANIZED BY

This program is made possible by a generous grant from the Robert and Myra Kraft Family Foundation to the USHMM. Co-organizers at TTU include: Center Stage, Commission on the Status of Blacks, Diversity, Equity, Access Council, Exceptional Learning Student Org., Multicultural Center, One World Student Org., Women's Center, National Association for Multicultural Education Region 3, & the TN Chapter of NAME.

For more information contact:

Dr. Jake Newsome (jnewsome@ushmm.org)

Dr. Lisa Zagumny (lzagumny@tntech.edu)

ushmm.org/connect

IN THIS PANEL DISCUSSION, students, scholars, and the campus community will explore the involvement of governments and ordinary people in two distinct systems of targeted oppression and racial violence within their different historical contexts.

SPEAKERS

DR. BETSIE GARNER

Department of Sociology, Tennessee Tech University
A Charming Veneer: Discourses of Southern Hospitality in the Jim Crow Era

DR. ALEXIS HERR

Associate Director, San Francisco Holocaust Center
Compliance and Complicity during the Holocaust

DR. ELIZABETH PROPE

Department of History, Tennessee Tech University
Complicit in Hearts and Minds

DR. TROY D. SMITH

Department of History, Tennessee Tech University
The Double V Campaign: Fighting Racism at Home and Abroad

This program is free and open to the public, but registration is requested at ushmm.org/events/tennessee-tech.

Above: A German girl stands at the entrance to a public swimming area in Fuerth on which a sign is posted "Admission forbidden to Jews." Stadtarchiv Fuerth

UNITED STATES
HOLOCAUST
MEMORIAL
MUSEUM 2018 25

JACK, JOSEPH AND MORTON MANDEL
CENTER FOR ADVANCED HOLOCAUST STUDIES

NEVER AGAIN
WHAT YOU DO MATTERS

THE CAMPAIGN
ushmm.org/campaign