

2022 Days of Remembrance

The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum leads the nation in observing Days of Remembrance, established by the US Congress as the country's annual Holocaust commemoration.

Below are sample social posts. We ask that you share your posts on Thursday, April 28, and invite others to join the nation in commemorating the Holocaust. Watch the Museum's virtual commemoration on Tuesday, April 26, at 6 p.m. ET. It will be available live and then on demand here: www.ushmm.org/DOR2022

Below are sample social media posts and graphics about Days of Remembrance. Please contact Hayley Miller for social media questions.

Facebook:

Each year during Days of Remembrance, our nation's annual commemoration of the Holocaust, we remember the six million Jews who were murdered and honor the survivors. Listen to echoes of the past—survivors' memories and victims' experiences—and watch the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum's virtual commemoration today. #WeRemember www.ushmm.org/DOR2022

To mark Days of Remembrance, I read aloud the names of Holocaust victims to ensure that these individuals and their legacies are not forgotten. They represent a tiny fraction of the six million Jews murdered during the Holocaust and millions of other victims of Nazi persecution. #WeRemember www.ushmm.org/DOR2022NamesReading

Twitter:

For Days of Remembrance, I join @HolocaustMuseum in remembering the six million Jews who were murdered and honoring the survivors. #WeRemember www.ushmm.org/DOR2022

To mark @HolocaustMuseum's Days of Remembrance, join me in reading aloud the names of Holocaust victims. These names represent a tiny fraction of the six million Jews killed in the Holocaust and millions of other victims of Nazi persecution. #WeRemember www.ushmm.org/DOR2022NamesReading

Instagram:

Each year during Days of Remembrance, our nation's annual commemoration of the Holocaust, we remember the six million Jews who were murdered and honor the survivors. Listen to echoes of the past—survivors' memories and victims' experiences—and watch the @HolocaustMuseum's virtual commemoration today. #WeRemember

To mark Days of Remembrance, I read aloud the names of Holocaust victims to ensure that these individuals and their legacies are not forgotten. They represent a tiny fraction of the six million Jews murdered during the Holocaust and millions of other victims of Nazi persecution. #WeRemember

