History Unfolded: US Newspapers and the Holocaust

Youth Responses to the Holocaust
Landeshauptmann here refers to the head of government (like a governor) in Lower Silesia, which was part of Germany.
March 30, 1933, page 1. The Daily Northwestern (Evanston, Illinois)

Link to article on History Unfolded

Full page not publicly available

New York Crowd Protests German Anti-Semitism

[Link to article on History Unfolded]

[Link to full page]
April 1, 1933, page 1. The Daily Illini
(Champaign-Urbana, Illinois)

[Adolf Hitler appointed Joseph Goebbels as the Reich Minister for Propaganda and Public Enlightenment.]
Dr. Sachar Condemns Hitler
Excuse for Anti-Jewish Action
As a ‘Downright Immoral Lie’

SOURCE 5
April 1, 1933, page 1. The Daily Illini
(Champaign-Urbana, Illinois)

[Dr. Abram Sachar was a history professor at the University of Illinois and the national director of Hillel, a Jewish campus organization]