I want to use records from the Landesarchiv Berlin that were copied for the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum.

These files may contain personal, partly intimate information on various persons. If these persons were born less than 90 years ago or died less than ten years ago, their personal data need to be protected. Users are obliged to treat these data confidentially and to refrain from sharing copies they might produce with third parties. If used in publications, personal information is to be anonymized.

If I publish a book or article that is based for the largest part on these records, I will send a copy of the publication to the Landesarchiv Berlin or notify them of the publication.

I will honor this statement.
